Trade cattle were limited in numbers, and all the usual buyer attended but not all operated in a market where prices were firm to 5c/kg softer on the limited supply.

Weaner steers to restock sold to a top of 460c, with the majority at 430c/kg and dearer. The well bred restocking weaner heifers ranged from 390c to 430c, and heavy vealer heifers sold to 398c/kg.
